Today is September 6th, 2009

This Morning's Hymns:

#527 – Glory To His Name
#529 – O, How I Love Jesus
#542 – When We All Get to Heaven
#625 – Doxology

Today's Scripture Reading:

Psalm 68:1-10

Meditation Verse:

Now we know that God does not hear sinners; but if anyone is a worshiper of God and does His will, He hears him.

-John 9:31

Summary: Although we are commanded to “pray without ceasing” there are times when prayer is not the proper response. This morning we'll learn that when there is sin in the church, when God isn't listening, or when God tells us “no”... it's time to stop praying.

Visitors and Newcomers:

Welcome! CBC does not pressure anyone into giving by passing a plate. Should you wish to worship the Lord with a tithe or offering, you may place it in the box located on the wall at the rear of the sanctuary at your discretion

"We ask you, therefore, to turn your back deliberately on the world of theological guesswork and dreams, and to concentrate with us entirely on the Bible, where God himself bears witness about himself in order that we may begin to know him as he is."

~J.I. Packer “Praying”
